GETTING AROUND

YOUR GUIDE TO EXPLORING the island

One thing all visitors to Koh Samui can agree on is that getting around the island is part of the adventure! While traffic is generally lighter than in Bangkok, certain areas, especially during peak hours or around popular beaches, can still get busy.

Fortunately, Koh Samui offers a variety of convenient ways to explore the island. Taxis and private transfers are widely available and ideal for comfort and flexibility. For a more local experience, you can hop on a shared songthaew (island-style open-air taxi), which circle the island and connect key areas.

If you're planning to visit popular spots such as Chaweng Beach, Fisherman's Village, or the iconic Big Buddha Temple, our concierge team will be delighted to arrange transportation or provide tailored recommendations to suit your itinerary.

For those seeking more independence, car and motorbike rentals are also available, allowing you to explore hidden beaches and scenic viewpoints at your own pace.

CULTURAL TIPS

KOH SAMUI OFFERS A WARM AND WELCOMING CULTURE, SHAPED BY TRADITION AND DEEP RESPECT FOR COMMUNITY AND SPIRITUALITY

- In Thai culture, the head is considered the most sacred part of the body, while the feet are seen as the lowest. As a sign of respect, avoid pointing your feet toward people or sacred objects, including Buddha images. Refrain from touching anyone's head, including children, and avoid reaching over it. A polite apology is appreciated if unavoidable.

- When visiting temples, private homes, or certain shops, shoes should be removed. A good rule of thumb is to follow the lead of those around you.

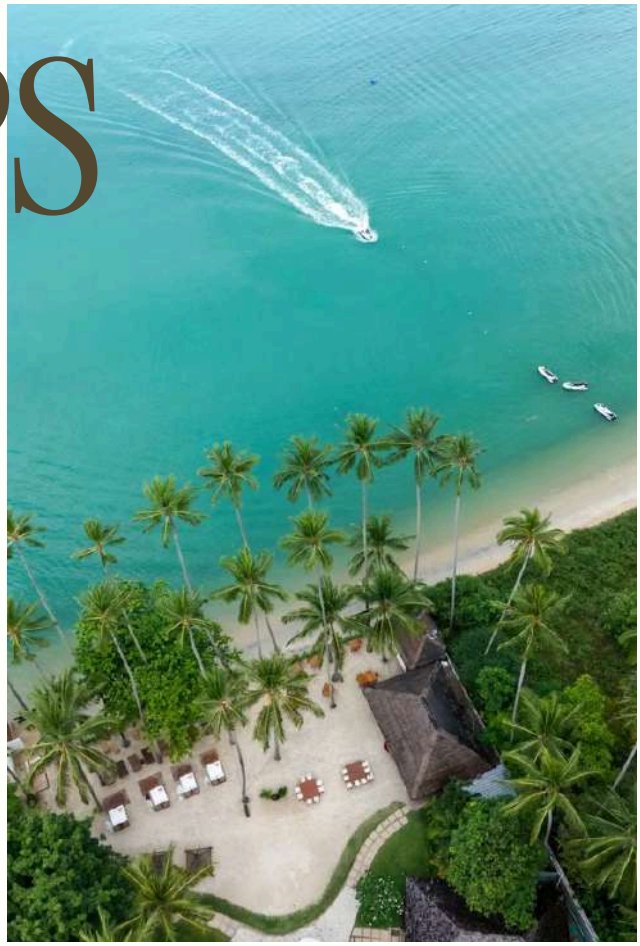

- You may hear the national anthem played in public spaces at 8AM and 6PM. During this time, it is customary to pause and stand still as a gesture of respect.

- While the island has a relaxed, beachside atmosphere, modest dress is appreciated when exploring beyond the beach.

- Public displays of affection are generally kept discreet. Respecting this cultural norm helps ensure a more thoughtful and harmonious experience.

TEMPLES & HIDDEN GEMS

Our Favorites

CARE

My favorite temple is Laem Sor Pagoda (The Golden Guardian of the Sea).

At the peaceful southern tip of Koh Samui, Laem Sor Pagoda stands gracefully by the sea, its golden surface glowing against the blue horizon.

Built in 1996 under the guidance of Luang Por Daeng, the pagoda is believed to protect fishermen and sailors. Unlike busier temples, it offers a quiet, intimate atmosphere perfect for reflection.

As the sun sets, the pagoda shines warmly, creating a serene moment where nature and spirituality meet.

Estimated travel time: 20 minutes (14.8 km)

TUN

My favorite temple is Big Buddha Koh Samui's iconic landmark.

Perched on the northeastern coast of Koh Samui, the majestic Big Buddha Temple, also known as Wat Phra Yai, stands 12 meters tall, overlooking the sea.

This sacred site is one of the island's most important spiritual landmarks, attracting both locals and visitors who come to pay respect and enjoy panoramic ocean views. The golden statue radiates serenity, especially during sunrise and sunset.

A visit to Big Buddha offers a peaceful moment of reflection and a glimpse into the spiritual heart of Koh Samui.

Estimated travel time: 45 minutes (21.8 km)

NAN

My favorite temple is Guan Yu Shrine (A Legacy of Loyalty and Virtue).

Set within the tranquil surroundings of Koh Samui, the Guan Yu Shrine honors Guan Yu, the revered symbol of loyalty, integrity, and courage.

Built by early Hainanese Chinese settlers, the shrine has long been a place for prayers seeking success, protection, and strength. Visitors come to offer incense and reflect in a peaceful, spiritual setting.

A visit here is not just cultural, it's a meaningful connection to enduring values of honor and devotion.

Estimated travel time: 15 minutes (12.7 km)

BAM

My favourit temple is Wat Plai Laem.

Located in the northeastern part of Koh Samui, Wat Plai Laem is a striking temple known for its unique architecture and serene atmosphere.

The temple features a magnificent white statue of Guanyin, the Goddess of Compassion, with multiple arms, as well as an ordination hall surrounded by a peaceful lake. Visitors can make merit, offer prayers, or feed the fish for good fortune.

Blending art, culture, and spirituality, Wat Plai Laem offers a tranquil and meaningful experience for all who visit.

Estimated travel time: 50 minutes (28.6 km)

HIDDEN GEMS

SILVER BEACH

KOH SAMUI

Tucked between Chaweng and Lamai, Silver Beach is a small, secluded bay known for its soft white sand and crystal-clear waters.

Surrounded by granite rocks and gentle hills, it offers a relaxing atmosphere, perfect for swimming, sunbathing, or simply unwinding away from the crowds.

Often considered one of the island's hidden gems, Silver Beach is ideal for those seeking a peaceful and picturesque escape.

Estimated travel time: 30 minutes (19.8 km)

HIN LAT WATERFALL

WHERE THE ISLAND WHISPERS

Tucked within the lush forest of Koh Samui, Hin Lat Waterfall refreshing escape from the island's busier spots.

A gentle forest trail leads you to cascading water and smooth rocks, forming natural pools perfect for relaxation. Surrounded by greenery, the atmosphere is calm, cool, and ideal for quiet reflection.

Hin Lat reveals a more peaceful, untouched side of Koh Samui perfect for reconnecting with nature.

Estimated travel time: 15 minutes (8.6 km)

DUSIT DHEVA CULTURAL CENTER

WHERE MYTHS COME ALIVE

Hidden among lush greenery on Koh Samui, Dusit Dheva Cultural Center feels like a serene, mythical garden.

Inspired by heavenly realms, the center features traditional Thai architecture, intricate carvings, and sculptures from Hindu and Buddhist mythology. Visitors can explore cultural displays, artisan crafts, and peaceful gardens.

It's a quiet journey into the spirit of Thai and Southeast Asian heritage.

Estimated travel time: 3 minutes (1.4 km)

HIN TA & HIN YAI ROCKS

LEGENDS BY THE SEA

Located along the southern coast of Koh Samui, Hin Ta and Hin Yai Rocks, known as Grandfather and Grandmother Rocks, are unique natural formations shaped by the sea.

According to local legend, they represent an elderly couple whose love and sincerity were transformed into stone. Today, they symbolize fertility, devotion, and family.

Set against beautiful ocean views, especially at sunrise and sunset, they offer a meaningful blend of nature, culture, and local storytelling.

SECRET BUDDHA GARDEN

A HIDDEN SANCTUARY IN THE HILLS

High in the hills of Koh Samui, the Secret Buddha Garden is a peaceful, mystical retreat surrounded by lush jungle.

Created by local farmer Nim Thongsuk, the garden features stone statues of Buddhas, deities, and mythical figures set among streams and greenery.

Quiet and unspoiled, it offers a unique place for reflection, where nature, art, and spirituality come together.

Estimated travel time: 15 minutes (8.8 km)

OUR FAVORITE RESTAURANTS

MOO CHOMPOO

Set within the easy rhythm of island life, Moo Chompoo is a beloved local spot that has quietly become part of Koh Samui's everyday story.

For locals, it is a go-to for comforting, no-frills dishes, a stop before heading out to sea or a satisfying meal at the end of the day. For those discovering it for the first time, it offers something truly genuine, an unfiltered taste of the island's culinary roots.

Simple and authentic, Moo Chompoo reflects the spirit of Koh Samui in its purest form.

Estimated travel time: 8 minutes (4.5 km)

ARUN SAWASDEE JOK BANGKOK

Arun Sawasdee Jok Bangkok is a popular local breakfast spot known for its comforting Thai rice porridge.

Each bowl of jok is slow-cooked to a silky texture and topped with minced pork, soft-boiled egg, ginger, and crispy dough.

A favorite among locals, it offers an authentic way to start the day with warmth, tradition, and true Thai comfort.

Estimated travel time: 10 minutes (5 km)

KRUA CHAO BAAN

Krua Chao Baan offers authentic Southern Thai cuisine in a simple, local setting.

Known as “Village Kitchen,” it serves bold, spicy dishes made from traditional family recipes using fresh local ingredients. From rich curries to flavorful seafood, every dish reflects the true taste of Samui.

This is a perfect spot for those seeking genuine, home-style Thai cooking beyond the resort experience.

BAAN SUAN LUNG KHAI

Baan Suan Lung Khai is a charming, family-run restaurant known for its authentic Southern Thai flavors.

Surrounded by greenery, it offers a relaxed, garden-style setting where guests can enjoy freshly prepared local dishes made with care. Popular among both locals and visitors, it’s the perfect place to experience true Thai home-style cooking in a warm, welcoming atmosphere.

Estimated travel time: 13 minutes (6.2 km)

KRUA JOOM PHAO

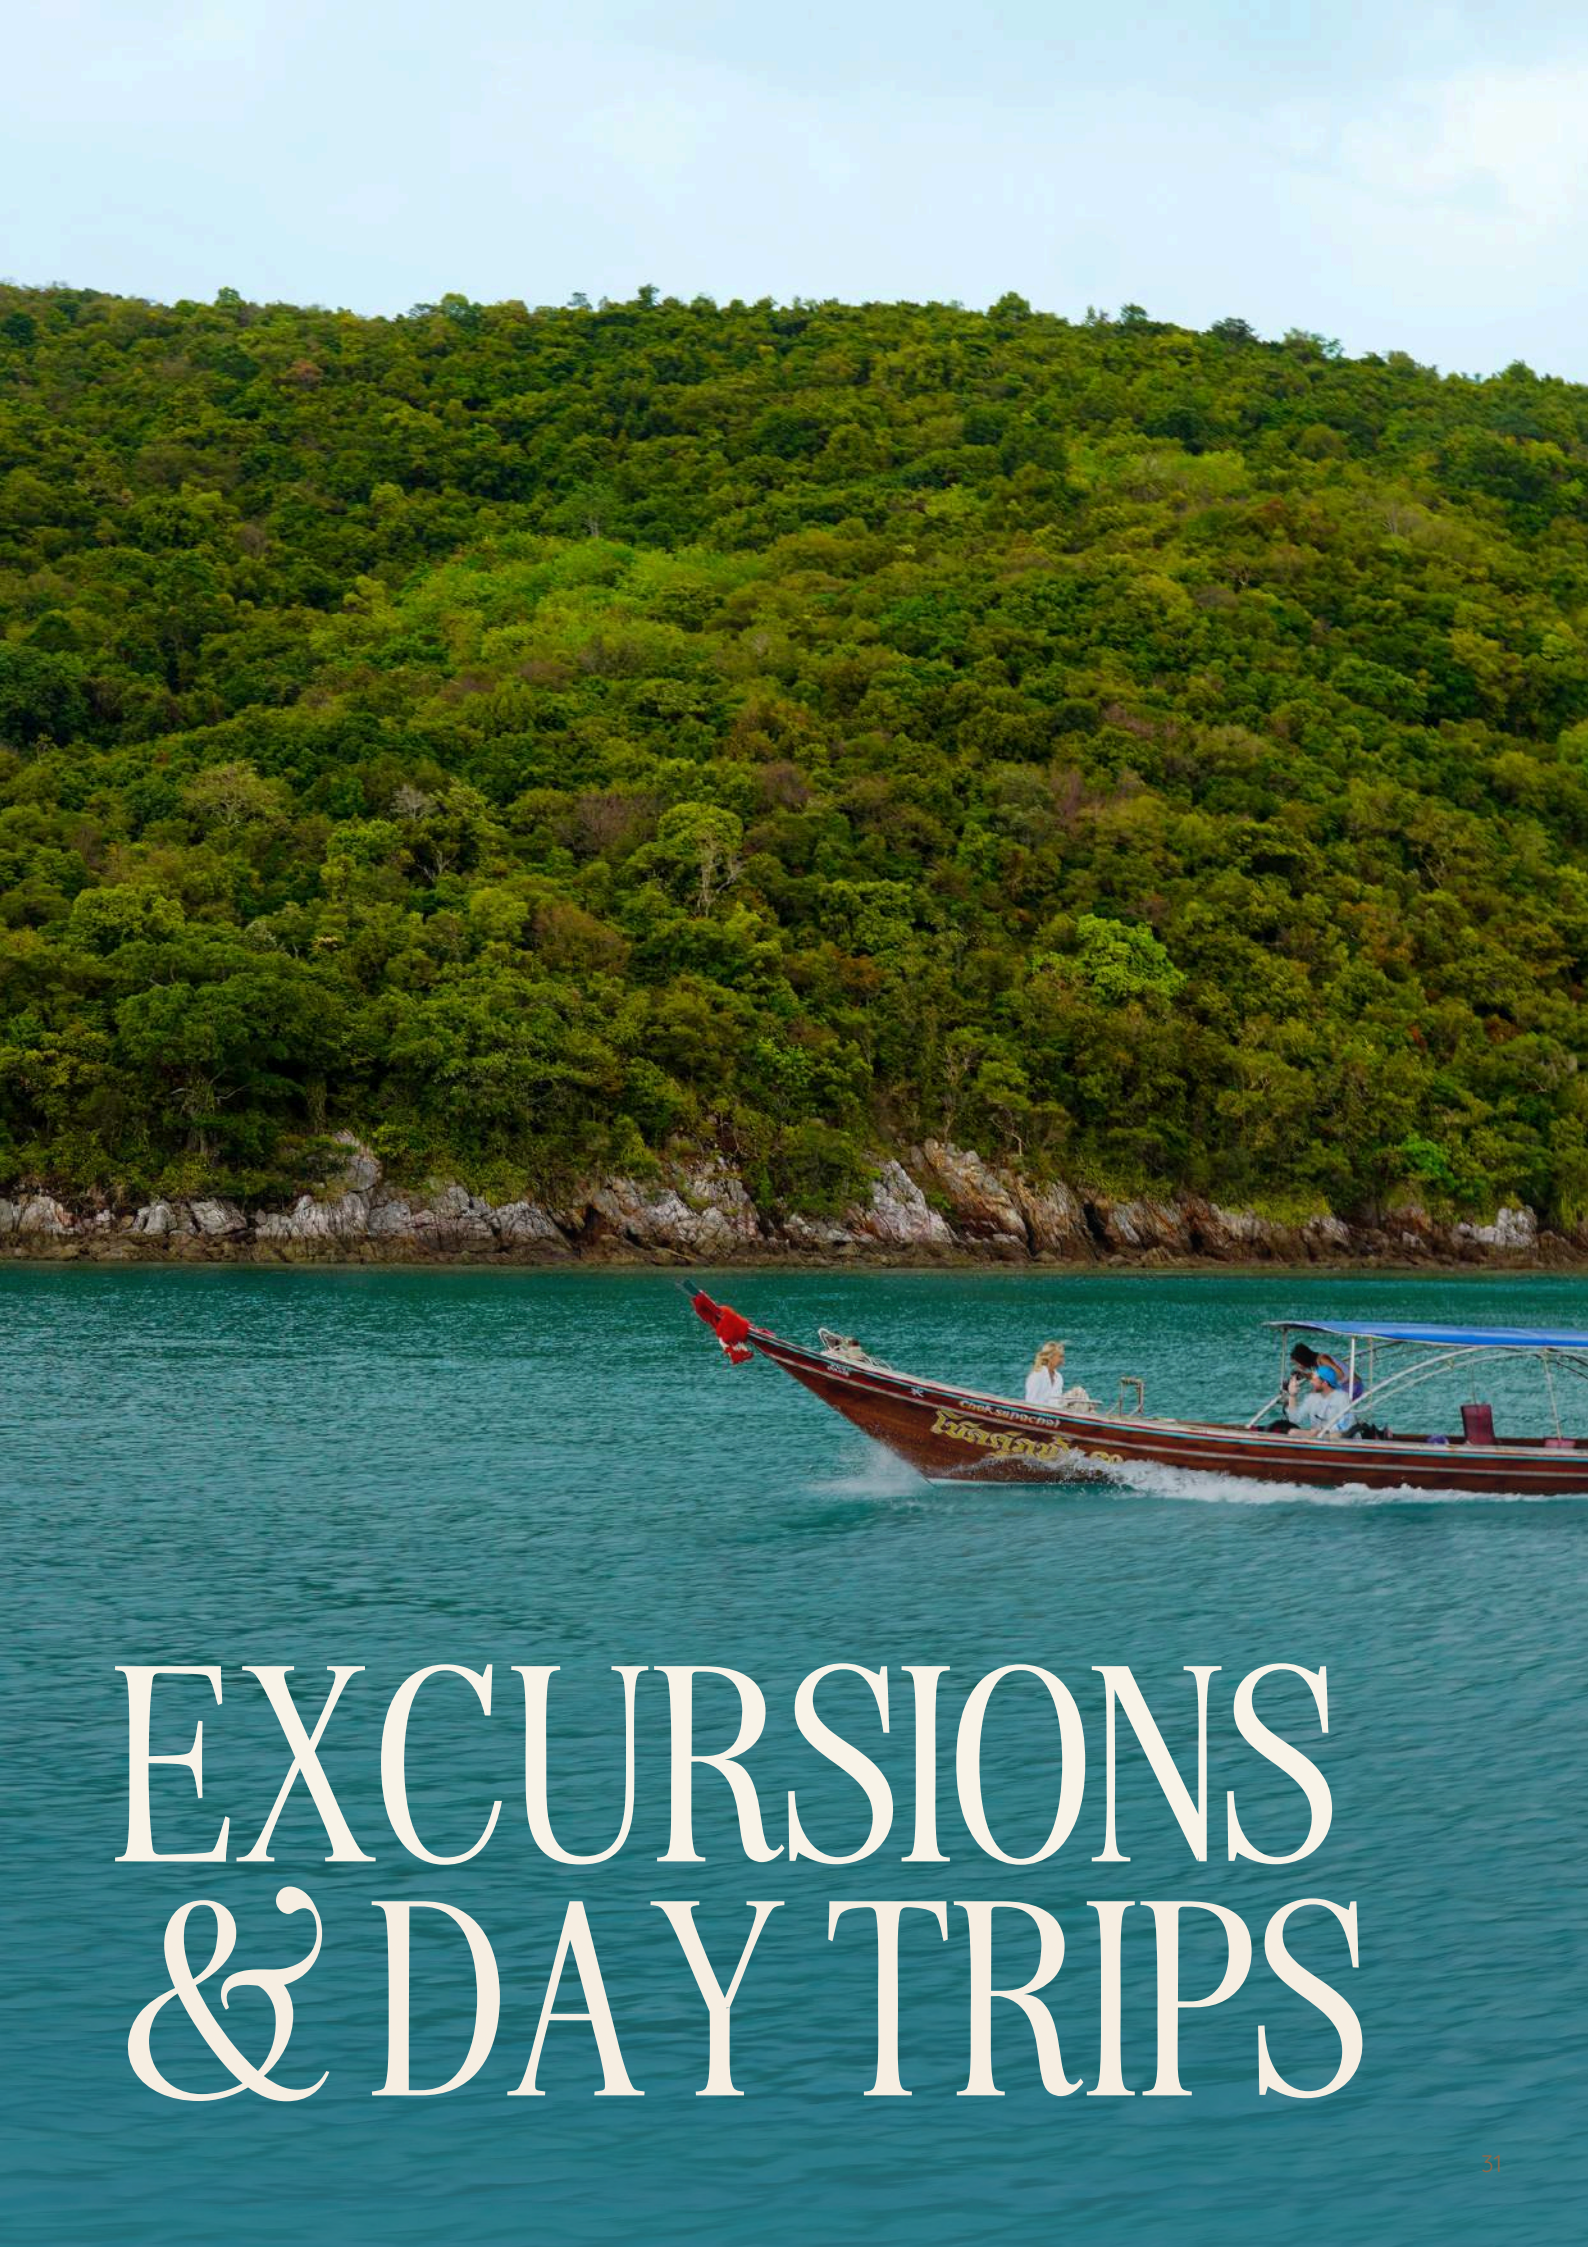

Krua Joom Phao is a humble local favorite known for authentic Southern Thai cuisine.

Dishes are rich in flavor, featuring fresh seafood, local herbs, and traditional recipes passed down through generations. The atmosphere is simple, warm, and welcoming, like dining in a family home.

Guests are often treated to Khanom Ko, a traditional coconut dessert, offering a sweet and memorable end to a truly local dining experience.
